 announce that in addition to the music in their own extensive catalogue, they import and keep in stock a very large number of foreign publications, which may be had immediately on application; and being connected with all the principal continental publishers, they are also enabled to supply, on the shortest possible notice, any works published abroad, which they may not have in stock.

The Universal Circulating Musical Library.

THIS Library, which was established, and has been most successfully carried on since 1859, by Messrs. Ewer and Co., has been purchased by Messrs. Novello and Co., and will be continued by them under the style of NOVELLO, EWER AND CO.

No expense nor exertion will be spared to make this Library still more complete; and the Proprietors feel confident that they will be able to meet the requirements of all Subscribers.

A Supplement is now added to the original Catalogue, which makes the Collection the largest and most valuable ever offered to the public. All New Music (Foreign or English) of merit will be added to the Catalogue as soon as published, and every endeavour will be made to supply the wants of subscribers immediately on application.

TO CHORAL SOCIETIES.—To remove the heavy taxes upon musical knowledge which had for so long a period prevented the possibility of the dissemination of the works of the great composers amongst the people of this country, Mr. J.

 Alfred Novello, in the year 1846, commenced the issue of those cheap editions of the standard oratorios and other sacred compositions, which are now too well known by all classes to need a word of recommendation. For some years the choruses in the octavo editions of these works have been published separately, with an organ or pianoforte accompaniment, at an exceedingly cheap rate.
 Messrs. Novello, Ewer and Co., however, believe that the time has now arrived when they may still further help forward the good work which has already produced such glorious results; and they have resolved, therefore, upon reducing the price of the whole of the octavo choruses fully fifty per cent. A list of these (with the reduced prices) will be found in the October number of the Musical Times; and purchasers should be careful, in ordering them, to ask for "Novello's Octavo Choruses," as it is also the intention of the publishers to issue a new edition of some of the most popular of these choruses, without accompaniment, which will be published under the title of "Novello's Penny Choruses." This work will be issued in numbers of the usual octavo size, each containing at least one, and frequently two or three choruses.
